HOW TO USE THIS LIST

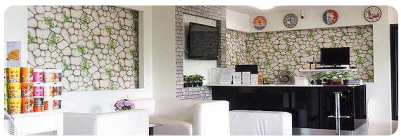

Eight places, one short walk or bus ride

The school is on Soi 112, on the sea side of Phetchakasem Road. Every place below is between a two-minute walk and a ten-minute green bus ride away. Prices are monthly, in Thai baht, from the places' own listings in October 2026. They change with the season, so treat them as a guide and confirm before you pay.

> The two sois to know. Soi 102 and Soi 114 both run off Phetchakasem Road near the school and both hold several monthly residences. Hua Thanon is the quieter area between Phetchakasem and the beach, with newer apartment blocks. Khao Takiab, the beach village, starts just south of the school.

Budget: 4,000 to 10,000 baht a month

1. H2 Huahin Residence

Where: 35/6 Soi 114, Phetchakasem Road, Nong Kae

From WECI: about 300 m, a short walk

3,900 to 10,000 baht a month

Furnished rooms with air conditioning, a fridge, a television and a balcony. Electricity is about 7 baht a unit and water 25 baht a unit, which is fair for Hua Hin. Expect a one-month deposit and a month in advance. The listing says one-year contracts, so ask for a four-week rate and expect it to sit at the top of the range. The closest place on this list to the classroom.

2. Time Apartment Huahin 102

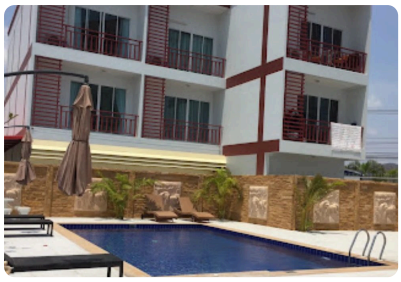

Where: Soi 102, Nong Kae

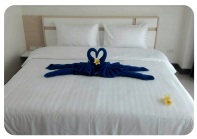

From WECI: about 1.2 km, five minutes by green bus

3,800 to 5,500 baht a month

One-bedroom rooms of around 40 square metres, which is large for the price. Listed on a one-year contract, so a four-week stay is a question for the owner, and the answer is usually yes at a higher monthly figure. Soi 102 has food, laundries and a 7-Eleven. The cheapest sound option on this list.

Before you pay, anywhere

- Ask for the four-week price in writing, with the deposit, the electricity rate per unit and the water rate.
- Run the shower, switch on the air conditioning, test the wifi in the room with the door shut.
- Get a receipt with the dates on it, and give the landlord a passport copy. They register your stay with immigration, which is normal.
- If a place wants a year, say you are a WECI trainee staying four weeks. Many will quote anyway.
